Pure Natural Therapy

BABY RANGE

All parents will naturally tell you they only want what's best for their baby but when it comes to finding products that work and don't upset the skin, young sensitive skin can be very challenging. This inspired Sanctum to create a three step range of natural products offering gentle cleansing, soft moisturizing and delicate protection to pamper baby's sensitive skin.

Sanctum products are made from certified organic ingredients and do not contain artificial preservatives, fragrances, colors, dioxins, petrochemicals, mineral oils, propylene glycol, diethanolamine (DEA), phthalates, sodium lauryl sulfate, sodium laureth sulphate, aluminium and animal derived ingredients they are not harsh and offer a pure natural means to care for your baby's skin and hair.

This unique new certified organic and vegan baby range is now available in Canada exclusively from Abundance Naturally.
